Toilet paper is the hottest topic right now.

All the stupid old people are buying out the toilet paper in stores because they are scared of the coronavirus pandemic! In these trying times, here are two methods you can use to save toilet paper, thereby removing the need to commit violence against elders for your fair share.

Method 1: Take the entire roll of toilet paper off the toilet paper holder and shove it firmly onto the end of your toilet bowl cleaner. Make sure no bristles are sticking out the top! Next, insert it into your bottom and alternate between twisting it clockwise and counterclockwise. Clean as a whistle! When finished, remove it from your anus. Method 2: For this method, leave the toilet paper roll on the holder. Stand next to it facing away from the wall, and spread your cheeks wide with your hands.

Press your backside against the front of the toilet paper roll. Then, reach between your legs and grab the dangling pieces of toilet paper. Yank them downwards and the toilet paper roll will spin on the holder, automatically wiping with maximum efficiency. Clean as a whistle!

i watched it happen.

they told me it was an old wives tale. they told me it wasn't actually true... they said you don't eat spiders in your sleep but the fucking nastiest spider i've seen just walked into my wife's mouth and she bit down on it like a crisp grape. they said you eat around 8 spiders a year but she proved that you can eat thousands of you bite the egg sac right.

I'm going to let you guys in on a little sex tip

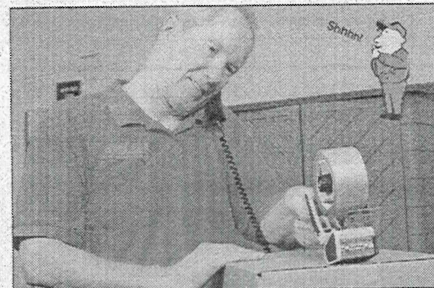

I found out during one of my midnight rendezvous. It is commonly known that women can experience multiple orgasms during one intercourse session, but did you know that they can experience TWO orgasms at ONCE? That's right. They are capable of something known in the PC world as "multithreading", it's where their vaginal computer utilizes two separate cores in charge of processing inputs to output two separate orgasms. If you'd like to learn how to do this please DM me and I can enroll you in my most recently available course in October (Sorry, June is already filled up) and you too can learn how to fuck your woman into a retard. Seriously. This will permanently damage her brain. She's going to be a vegetable.

Just now,
a telemarketer called me.
He said, "Hi, I'm Jason from Home
Electronics. How are you doing?"

I responded, "Hi, I'm Jason from Home
Electronics," with the same inflection.
He hung up immediately.

so i had a bit of time in between my two jobs and didnt feel like going home

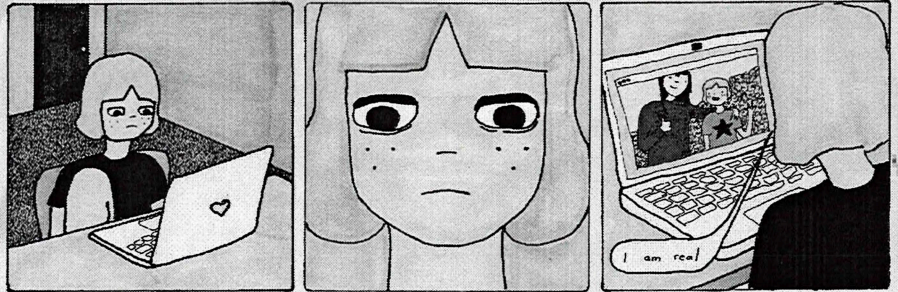

so i began wandering around inside a walmart. i found two slices of cheesecake marked down to about a dollar and I thought that was a pretty good deal, but i didnt want to carry cheesecake around walmart for an hour though, it'd just get warm. so I just pushed it back to the end of the cooler where no one else could see it until I came back. Then I passed through the canned food aisle, and it started to bother me that there was no such thing as canned lemons. i found an employee slacking off and talking to her friend or whatever, I interrupt her and ask her where the canned lemons are. She turns to me and asks me how I am, I ignore the frivolous introductions and just repeat my question "where are the canned lemons?". "canned lemons?" "yeah, they're just like canned peaches, but lemons." "I don't know if I've ever heard of those." "she and I go to the canned foods section." "she just stares at the canned food on the shelf." "she asks me what I'm making." "nothing, I just want to eat lemons." "she says: Well, I guess I could talk to my manager and see if they can order it for you." "alright, if that's what you think you should do." "the second employee is obviously less oblivious to my bullshit and asks me what I want canned lemons for." "well, I'm going away for a while, like camping, and real lemons will go bad too quickly so I need canned lemons." "well canned lemons don't exist, maybe you could can your own lemons?" "that's not a bad idea I say as I walk away." never did go back for the cheesecake because I found out they were selling entire cheesecakes for only three dollars in the freezer aisle.

WHAT GETS ME IS WHEN A WOMAN FORCES HERSELF ON TOP OF ME. THEY NEVER ASK. THEY JUMP UP ON ME AND GRAB MY DICK AND SHOVE IT IN THEM. THEN THEY RIDE ME LIKE A FREAKIN HORSE. THEY START OUT AT FAST SPEED AND THEN ULTRA FAST SPEED THEN DEMONIC SPEED AND FINALLY POSSESSED BY THE SUCCUBUS SPEED. THEY'RE LIKE WRITING ON ME AND I ALWAYS CUM WITHIN A MINUTE. USUALLY I'LL TELL THEM IM CUMMING BUT THEY WONT GET OFF AND I HAVE TO GRAB MY OWN DICK AND YANK IT OUT CAUSE THEY ARE NO HELP AT ALL.

HOWEVER, THE PAPERS HAVE BEEN PLACED AT THE END OF A SERIES OF INNOVATIVE PHYSICS PUZZLES REQUIRING AT LEAST ONE PERSON TO CO-OPERATE WITH ME TO STAND ON GIANT BUTTONS, COUNTERBALANCE ENORMOUS SCALES, THROW BALLS THROUGH HOLES IN THE WALLS BETWEEN ADJACENT ROOMS, ETC.. When I eat dinner my dog always begs for table scraps and it annoys me. So what I do is I grab a handful of his kibble and throw them to him sporadically while I eat. But then I started thinking, "What if he thinks I'm eating dog food?" I don't want him to think we eat the same food! I need to assert my dominance by giving that sad son of a bitch a teeny tiny table scrap that is ONE THOUSAND TIMES better tasting than what he eats.

I accidentally broke off the towel rack in my bathroom and now there are two big holes in the wall. I keep expecting spiders to crawl out of them but every morning I am disappointed by the lack of hole-spiders. It IS fun to piss on the drain-spiders, though. I made it into a game: "hair clump or tarantula." I take a guess at which one it is then let the water run, and if the clump starts running then it's pissing time, but if not, then I'm left with this empty feeling for the rest of the morning.

6 Reasons You Should Be Sleeping on Your Feet

For millennia, horses and flamingos have prospered by using a simple trick that we humans have only very recently begun to appreciate: sleeping while standing up. The benefits of sleeping on your feet are still poorly understood and too numerous to list here, but we hope this short list is enough to convince you to try this life-changing strategy tonight.

1. Beds are bulky and expensive.

A twin size mattress measures 38.5" by 74.5" and costs at least $50 USD. If that sounds bad already, remember that mattresses only get bigger and more expensive. Don't forget the additional costs and hassle of bed bases, frames, pillows (don't get us started on these guys), sheets, blankets, and so on. We won't bore you with the details of other horizontal sleeping arrangements—they're all just as bad, if not worse. By comparison, sleeping on your feet only takes up as much space as you do, and costs only as much as the footwear you were going to buy anyway. Don't spend money and space that you don't have to.

2. Beds are common sites of blood theft.

Here's another reason to avoid beds (and other horizontal sleeping arrangements) entirely. Your bone marrow works hard to make the red blood cells that circulate oxygen throughout your body, so it might horrify and infuriate you to learn that your bed is home to hundreds of tiny thieves who live only to creep across your body and steal the very fruits of your bones' labor. I'm not saying "burn your bed", but I am saying that bedbugs don't handle fire very well.

3. Sometimes people burgle.

While we're on the topic of theft—as long as people can do whatever they want, some people will opt to burgle. It's hard to defend your home while lying in your bed. But what burglar would be stupid enough to rob a home with the owner standing in the front window? Sleep on your feet, and you can be your own guard dog.

4. Nightmare assailants catch you off-guard.

But what about threats from within? Time after time, no matter how fast you work your legs, that shadowy figure in your dreams chases you down and catches you. What if I told you it was because it got a head start? By starting your dreams in a lying-down position, you waste valuable escape time on standing up, when you could start on your feet and run immediately just by falling asleep while standing.

5. There aren't enough napportunities (nap opportunities).

When you're trapped in the mindset that lying down (or, perhaps, sitting) is the only way to sleep, it can seem like there's hardly anywhere for you to catch a few Z's. Some people have lived like this for so long, in fact, that they fail to even see this as a problem. Once you're sleeping standing up, though, you'll have a hard time finding a place where you couldn't take a nap! Life is peppered with napportunities (nap opportunities) wasted "just standing around"—waiting in line, hiding in the closet—all for you to seize.

6. Sometimes we make whoopsies.

Fluids and beds don't get along. Who wants to deal with a soaked mattress? When you sleep standing up, all you have to do is change your clothes, and it's like the accident never happened.\\

Don't worry, not everyone can do it right away. If you can't seem to get the hang of sleeping while standing, start by sleeping while crouching, and work your way up.

Scientists are saying stuff about you. Behind your back, I mean. I don't mean to snitch, but like, I just thought you'd want to know. Cuz it's REALLY messed up. You don't even want to know what they're saying, those scientists. It was enough to send a big fat shiver up the entire length of my central nervous system. They said they'd lock you in a 5G tower and throw away the key. You'd be like the hunchback of Notre Dame, just more irradiated. It's not as cool as it sounds.

"crust" as we like to call it so our wives won't try and copy us, this seems like something only me and the boys should be doing. Last week, get this, I huffed 237 crusts in only a few days. Yeah it was expensive and yes, its getting hard to breathe, talk, and or taste and smell but boy do i look real fucking cool. So if you're ever bored my friends, go grab some chesterfield green 100's and just run with it. You won't regret it, I don't!

Scientists are reporting several new symptoms of COVID-19, including increased sex appeal and heightened joie de vivre. Several coronavirus patients have reported an unstoppable desire to have fun in the sun, wear muscle shirts, and chat up attractive people in a spontaneous fashion. "Before I got corona, I was always too shy to talk to girls. But then I touched my face after a subway ride and all of a sudden I had the courage to tell Suzie from Apartment 16D how I feel when we ride the elevator together" says one newlywed beside his spouses deathbed.

Doctors are reporting that 97% of tinder matches contain at least one coronavirus patient. "They are just irresistible." says Dr. Wetpussy at St. Pussy Hospital. ## We live in an era of information control.

As the internet has allowed for the dissemination of all kinds of information to any who could connect to it, those that control the flow have recently put great efforts to control what is seen as well. The freedom of information is a candy coated lie fed to the masses. The free flowing live blood of the internet has coagulated into a few clots of site aggregators. These clots are the bouncers to the internet. If you want to reach people you must go through them, and they are permitted to disallow any content they wish. It is a moral imperative to allow all speech to be able to flourish and be accessed by any and all that would wish to. It is for this reason, Mrs. Wojcicki, that you MUST reupload my video "Peppa Pig Presents the Top 10 Tastiest Drinks Under the Sink!"

LITTLE BAT

Topsy-turvy, funny perch,
Little bat hid in a church-
Sleepy country, somber view,
Over quiet town he flew.

Lonesome, bitter, upside down,
Every smile a frightful frown-
Weeping, wistful, restless gawn,
"Ever will I see the dawn?"
